ENIAC
CHAPTER TWO INNOVATIVE GENIUSES
Investigating, studying, questioning, learning—these are all ways Missourians seek to better understand the world around us. As our unofficial state motto suggests, Missouri innovators took a "show me" approach to learning. Many wanted to find new and improved ways to care for the human body and ultimately better serve the human race. Others hoped to better understand the natural world around us through agriculture, animals, micro-organisms and more. Even more used their smarts to improve technology and services.
Missouri's innovators blazed the path for others to discover, learn and create. These trailblazers did not let a fear of the unknown stop them, but rather they let the challenge of the unknown guide them.
