6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The purpose for this Agreement is for the use of a storage unit. The use of such facilities and premises is at the sole risk of the Occupant. It is expressly understood and agreed by the Occupant that the Operator's liability under this Agreement shall be limited to breach of its contractual obligation to provide storage space and nothing more. The Operator shall not be liable to Occupant for loss, damage, or injury to persons (including death) or to property, including its contents, gear or equipment.

7. ACCEPTABLE PROPERTY

The Occupant may store only personal property which shall be limited to major recreational equipment used for recreational purposes. Major recreational equipment, as defined for purposes of this agreement, includes any recreational vehicle or equipment, other than commercial vehicles or equipment, used or designed to be used for camping, travel, or hauling purposes, including, but not limited to, a motor home, camping trailer, travel trailer, tent trailer, boat trailer, boat, ATV, dirt bike motorcycle, camper body for mounting on a truck, or a container or trailer for storing or transporting camping, travel, recreational, or other equipment, whether occupied by such equipment or not. OCCUPANT shall not keep or have in or on the leased premises any article or thing which might be deemed "hazardous" or "illegal." This shall specifically prohibit explosives, combustible materials, chemicals, odorous or other inherently dangerous materials, unless such materials are contained in a container specifically designed for such use and of a type approved by the appropriate governmental entity. All propane tanks must be turned off prior to storage.

8. INDEMNITY

Occupant agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the Operator, its officers, agents and employees, from and against any and all actions, suits, damages, liability or other proceedings that may arise as the result of this Agreement. This section does not require Occupant to be responsible for or defend against claims or damages arising solely from errors or omissions of the Operator, its officers, agents or employees.

9. UNIT MAINTENANCE

Occupant agrees to maintain the rented storage unit in a clean and safe manner. Occupant is responsible for all trash removal in the rented storage unit.

10. ALTERATIONS

Occupant shall not make any alterations, install any fixtures, paint, mark, cut, drill or drive nails or screws into, or in any way deface or alter any part of the premises.

11. SIZE

The storage unit is clearly marked. All property belonging to Occupant shall be confined to within the borders of the Occupant's unit. All supplies, materials, accessories and other items must be stored within the rented unit. Loose supplies, materials, accessories and other items are prohibited and are subject to removal by the Operator at the sole expense of the Occupant.

12. LOCKS

The Occupant shall provide a lock at their own expense. The Occupant agrees to place only one lock on the door when the unit is rented. Occupant will keep this space locked at all times until the Occupant removes the lock to vacate the premises.

13. INSPECTION OF PREMISES

The Operator and its agents may enter the unit at all reasonable times, upon reasonable notice to Occupant except in the event of an emergency or for the purpose of making necessary repairs and inspection of the premises. Occupant shall make the unit available for entry upon notice, or failing cooperation of Occupant, the Operator may cause any lock to be removed and enter the unit without liability to the Operator.

14. SUBLEASING

Subleasing of storage units and transfer of property from one unit to another is strictly prohibited.

15. REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE

Repairs and maintenance to Occupant property is not allowed in the storage area.

Occupants who store off-road vehicles in the storage lot will be the only party allowed to ride these vehicles from the storage area to the off-road vehicle riding area during posted riding hours only. All off-road vehicle rules and regulations apply.

17. PROPERTY LIENS

The Occupant hereby grants the Operator a lien on all personal property stored within each leased space for rent, labor, or other charges, and for expenses reasonably incurred in sale of such personal property. If Occupant is in default for a period of more than sixty days, the Operator may enforce this lien and take possession of stored personal property. OPERATOR AT THEIR OPTION MAY:

- A. Seize Occupant's property in said storage unit by cutting Occupant's lock and/or over locking unit with Operator's lock. If a locksmith is necessary to remove locks, his charges will be added to Occupant's balance due.
- B. Proceed to sell any or all of the stored goods to satisfy arrears at a public or a private sale.
- C. Institute legal action for collection of past due rent, damage cost, reasonable attorney fees, court costs, and any other costs incurred.

The above remedies are not exclusive or sole remedies. Operators may, at Operator's sole option, exercise any one or all of said remedies, together with any available legal actions.

Notice of default and time and place of any public or private sale shall be mailed by U.S. postal service at least 10 days prior to any such sale, to the last known address as indicated on this agreement. OCCUPANT will be charged for certified mail plus a cost of newspaper ads plus any handling fees or if Operator hires a locksmith to drill Occupant's lock off.

Only payment in the full amount of the lien will be accepted to satisfy lien. Partial payments will not stop any auction procedures or legal actions.

Missouri Law to Apply: This storage Agreement and any action arising between the parties shall be construed under and in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Missouri in Section 415.415, RSMo. The Missouri Self-Storage Facilities Act grants to OPERATOR a lien on all personal property stored within each OCCUPANT'S leased space for rent, labor and other charges and for expenses reasonably incurred by OPERATOR in the sale of such personal property, as provided in sections 415.400 to 415.430, RSMo. The personal property stored within OCCUPANT'S storage unit may be sold to satisfy such lien if the OCCUPANT is in default and any proceeds from such sale which remain after satisfaction of the lien will be paid to the State Treasurer if unclaimed by the OCCUPANT within one (1) year after the sale of the property.
