

ROBERTSVILLE STATE PARK WELCOMES:

Mo-Tell Storyteller Flavia Everman

August 29, 2025, at 7 p.m.

Join Flavia Everman near the campground showerhouse to go on an exciting trip around the world through her storytelling. Flavia will share stories for all ages about the natural world, astronomy, and myths and legends. This program is free and open to the public, and there is no need to register.

Parking is available near the showerhouse and in other areas of the campground. Seating will be limited, so you may want to bring a chair or blanket.
