ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:*Description of Environment and Outbuildings:*Further Description of important architectural features:

This American foursquare has four hipped dormers with 4/1 double hung windows. There is a bay window on the East façade. The original limestone porch columns have been painted yellow and there is a wood non-original porch balustrade. Many of the windows have been replaced. There is a half-light front door.

History and Significance:

This property was developed by Jerry Murphy, a real estate developer that lived at 1501 E. 35th St.

Eligibility: not eligible

This is a common American Foursquare that is not individually eligible, and due to the number of demolitions there is little potential for a district.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:*Description of Environment and Outbuildings:*Further Description of important architectural features:

This bungalow has most of the windows boarded. The front porch is supported by vinyl wrapped posts and is surrounded by a metal balcony. The house is currently in poor physical condition.

History and Significance:

Harry W. Wells has a real estate developer that lived at 3439 Wayne. Ralph Wells worked for Wells & McCanles.

Eligibility: not eligible

This is a common bungalow that is not individually eligible, and due to demolitions on the block, there is little potential for a district.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:*Description of Environment and Outbuildings:*Further Description of important architectural features:

This bungalow has most of the windows boarded. The front porch is supported by vinyl wrapped posts and is surrounded by a metal balcony. The house is currently in poor physical condition.

History and Significance:

Harry W. Wells has a real estate developer that lived at 3439 Wayne. Ralph Wells worked for Wells & McCanles.

Eligibility: not eligible

This is a common bungalow that is not individually eligible, and due to demolitions on the block, there is little potential for a district.

wood balustrade on the front porch is not original; there are 4/1 double hung windows on the front (west) façade. There are fixed six light windows on the south façade.

History and Significance:Eligibility: not eligible

This craftsman bungalow is a common style that would not be individually eligible, and due to demolitions and alterations on the block, there is little potential for a district.
