

Reptile & Amphibian Quiz

1. How are turtles born?
 - They are born like humans
 - They are born from hard eggs, like birds
 - They are born from soft eggs, usually buried in the sand or mud
 - They are born from one turtle splitting into two turtles

2. There is a species of lizard in Missouri that has a blue tail:
 - True
 - False

3. This small Missouri snake has an orange, yellow, or cream ring around its neck _____.

4. What happens after a lizard exhibits Autotomy?
 - It will return, pick up its tail, and put itself back together
 - The detached piece will grow into another lizard
 - The lizard will be tailless forever
 - Its tail will regrow, usually taking several months

5. If a lizard bites you, it will hold on until it thunders.
 - True
 - False

6. A tadpole is one of the beginning stages of what type of animal?
 - Frog
 - Fish
 - Lizard
 - Snake

7. One of the most common box turtles in Missouri is named for its three _____.

8. All frogs lay their eggs in

- Grass
- Water
- Sand
- Air

9. All species of Missouri _____, live in burrows and are most active at night, especially after a heavy rain.

10. Since snakes look shiny, they appear wet and slimy, like fish. But, in fact, snake skin is smooth and dry.

- True
- False