

Grand Gulf State Park Accessibility Information

Tucked in the hills of the Ozarks near the Arkansas line, Grand Gulf State Park beckons to be explored. A picnic area atop the gulf provides a place to rest with one site accessible, having a paved pathway and an extended-end table. A handicap parking spot of packed pea gravel and asphalt is offered.

Nearby, a pathway from the information kiosk leads to an overlook. The path is of packed pea gravel and has a maximum slope of 7.7 percent. An accessible vault toilet is located a short way up the hill. No parking space is available; however, those needing to do so may park at the pathway to gain access.

There is no water or public phone provided at this time.
